AUGUSTINER . 5,6° . SMALL 0,2 CL 3,00 € . MEDIUM 0,5 CL 6,00 € . LITER 10,00 € (1°TAP)

From 1328 one of the most important among the 6 sisters of Monaco. A beer with a velvety consistency, with a white foam, compact and persistent, with a full and balanced taste that highlights a round body between the bite of the malt and the herbaceous hops.

MAES PILS . 5,5° . SMALL 0,2 CL 2,50 € . MEDIUM 0,4 CL 5,00 € . LITER 10,00 € (2°TAP)

The Maes, with its long tradition in the production of beer that dates back to 1880, has created an excellent classic pils characterized by a careful selection of the best raw materials. The hop is only exclusively Saazer Saazer, one of the finest hops that gives this beer all the bitterness of a real pils.

GUINNESS STOUT . 4,2° . SMALL 0,2 CL 3 € . MEDIUM 0,56 CL 5 € (3°TAP)

A legend tells that it was born by mistake following a fire in the malt deposit in Dublin (18th century). They decided to try producing it using burnt / toasted malt. In this way he saw the light of the most famous Stout in the world. It is recognized by the unmistakable taste of coffee, liquorice and has a persistent white opal foam.

BUCANIER GOLDEN ALE . 11° . MEDIUM 0,3 CL 6,00 € (4°TAP)

The Ertvelde brewery where it is produced was founded in 1784 and is currently one of the most modern and important in Belgium. A strong beer of strong alcohol content in a strong ale style, full-bodied and not very bitter, it has a fruity aroma and pervades the palate with warm alcoholic notes and then ends with sweet malty notes.

IPA/APA . SMALL 0,2 CL . MEDIUM 0,4 CL (5°TAP)

This route is used in rotation with the best bitter beers in circulation, in IPA and APA style, this street is the anthem for hops around the world: from the most traditional English Indian Ale, to the very famous and by now consolidated American Pale Ale, up to the Italian newborns. These beers are characterized by a good fresh and floral nose to reach a dry and stimulating finish.

BLANCHE/WEISSE . SMALL 0,2 CL . MEDIUM 0,4 CL (6°TAP)

Whether they are of German or Belgian nature, white beers are distinguished by their classic light opalescent color due to the parts of yeast in suspension both are distinguished by a small hint of acid, a very fine and slightly spicy taste and an alcohol content of around 5° with a slightly dry finish. Belgian blazes enjoy a nice scent often due to the addition of coriander, cardamom etc...

TRIPPEL . MEDIUM 0,3 CL (7°TAP) CHIARA

This route is dedicated to the Belgian Strong Ale, therefore to light beers of alcohol content between 7° and 9° light hops. Trippelel or Tripel was originally the name used in Belgium to describe their strongest "the party beer". It is generally a beer with a good fragrance that perfectly hides the bitter and its alcohol content.

DUBBEL . MEDIUM 0,3 CL (8°TAP) RED

Classic Belgian beer or even Belgian Belgian or Bier Fort, in short, the one drunk every day in Belgium is generally red-colored with a good body, an abundant white foam of medium persistence its malty notes make it decidedly not bitter and very pleasant on long winter evenings.
